

Welcome!

It's not often you find a community that offers the best of both worlds both big and small, but in Greater Beloit we have it all.

From a state-sponsored technical college to a nationally ranked private college, from small downtown shops to publicly traded world class competitors, from affordable single-family housing to luxury condominiums, from minor league baseball games to wine-and-cheese art openings, we have something for everyone.

In the Greater Beloit Area, our cities and townships combine, giving you big-city appeal along with small-town charm. And if it's the big city you're truly after, we are located just a short drive away from Chicago, Milwaukee, and Madison.

Whether you are looking for a place to live, work, play or learn, the Greater Beloit Area has it all. Discover for yourself what the 105,000-plus people who make this area their home already know.
